

On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current media ownership rules. I oppose a vote that leads to more media consolidation. The airwaves are supposed to belong to the people and the print media is supposed to serve the public. Let's not hand it all to commercial or special interest.